

THE FACE OF LAW

Kena Hollingsworth

Hollingsworth Law Group

Founding Partner and Attorney

At Hollingsworth Law Group, divorce isn't just a legal procedure—it's an opportunity for growth, healing and positive transformation. This innovative approach is the brainchild of founding partner Kena Hollingsworth, whose "Divorce Done Differently" philosophy is reshaping family law practice. With nearly 25 years dedicated exclusively to divorce and family law, Kena brings a unique blend of legal expertise and personal insight to her work. Launching Hollingsworth Law Group in 2023 marked a new chapter in her career. As Kena reflects, "This journey has truly been the most humbling, rewarding, exciting, terrifying, empowering and gratifying time of my life."

What sets Hollingsworth Law Group apart is its holistic approach to family law. As a certified relationship coach, mediator and trained collaborative divorce professional, Kena emphasizes healing and post-divorce success for her clients. Her personal experiences as a child of divorce and having navigated divorce herself infuse her practice with rare empathy and understanding. Kena's passion for her work is palpable. "Life transitions are complicated. Walking alongside clients in the messy complexity of these experiences and supporting, inspiring and empowering them throughout the process is my greatest passion," she says, adding that helping her clients navigate some of life's most challenging circumstances is what she lives for.

Under Kena's leadership, the firm has rapidly expanded, attracting professionals who share her commitment to compassionate, client-centered service. Hollingsworth Law Group goes beyond traditional legal services, focusing on clients' emotional well-being and future happiness. By combining legal acumen with genuine care and a vision for positive change, Kena Hollingsworth and her team are not just changing how divorce is handled—they're transforming lives and setting a new standard in family law practice.
